Participation:	ISU Members
-----------------------	-------------

Each team may enter four competitors (two ladies, two men) in senior single skating events and four competitors (two ladies, two men) in each category in single skating of junior and novice events. The entries that were placed the first three at the ISU Junior Grand Prix Final 2007/2008 and the medallists of the World Junior Championships 2008 are not counted into the quota above. The Slovene Skating Union and the organizer reserve the right to enter additional teams and additional competitors in each category. Only the ISU Members, which enter competitors in at least four categories, will be qualified for the Team Competition.

Judges:	Each ISU Member may nominate one International or ISU Championships Judge. An ISU Member participating in four or more categories gains the right to enter the second International or ISU Championships Judge.

Referees:	The ISU Member participating in at least three categories gains the right to nominate one ISU recognised Controller. The ISU Member participating in all six categories (one senior lady, one senior man, one skater per category in Junior and Novice events) gains the right to nominate ISU recognised Controller and ISU recognised Technical Specialist. In case of two many nominations the first entered will have the priority. The officials nominated will be posted after the closing date of entries.

Calculation of team results:

In each team, one best-placed skater in each category will count for the Team's competition.

- ❖ In each single skating category, the first placed skater will receive 25 points; the second placed 23, the third 22 etc.
- ❖ For calculation of results, the points obtained in each category will be multiplied by following factors: Seniors 3, Juniors 2 and Novices 1.
- ❖ The winner of Triglav Trophy will be the team with the highest amount of points. If two or more teams obtain the same amount of points, the first place will go to the team, which has better placed Seniors.

Awards:

Skaters placed first to third will be awarded medals and diplomas, all the others diplomas.

The best-placed team will receive Triglav Trophy Cup.
